

eValue Users

Financial and strategic opinions developed by eValue are intended to serve the needs of 4 large groups of customers. These customers trust the solutions provided by eValue to carry out their businesses in a more efficient way because they adhere to strict ethical and professional standards.

Owner & Manager

Owners & Management

More often owners don't wait until an extraordinary event, such as a company sale or a partnership dispute, to commission a professional business valuation. They are using the comprehensive valuation as a planning and business management tool to maximize shareholder value. eValue helps owners and management to calculate the market value of the company and to understand the business key value drivers, major strengths and weaknesses, so that owners & management solve both apparent and hidden problems to increase business value.

Financial Institutions

Financial Institutions

Financial institutions in Mexico rely on our expert conclusions of value, and when they are under sensitive time constraints, we are the first to get the call. Because the large majority of our assignments are transaction-based and initiated by financial institutions and advisors, we understand the importance of completing projects quickly and delivering high quality financial opinions. eValue guarantees a 7 business day turnaround for most of valuation projects once all requested information is submitted to us.

M&A Advisors

M&A Advisors

M&A advisors and business brokers are attracted by our expertise and commitment at the beginning of their engagements to provide their clients an independent, third party conclusion of fair market value. The purpose of this valuation is to close the gap between buyer and seller expectations and increase the probabilities to close a deal successfully and saving a tremendous amount of time.

Attorneys & Accountants

Attorneys & Accountants

Advisors are raising the subject of a business valuation with their clients prior to a specific triggering event, such as a business sale, shareholder dispute and finding ways to increase and defend the value of a business. eValue can act as an independent third part valuator or as an advocate, providing the highest quality valuation consulting. If you are an attorney, accountant or financial advisor, please contact us today to discuss our preferred partner program.
